

PRIVACY POLICY

The Junior Golf Association of Northern California (JGANC) collects personal information from members, parents, alumni, and website visitors through membership applications, tournament entries, and online forms. This information enables us to communicate effectively with each group.

JGANC encourages parents and guardians to monitor and actively participate in their children's online activities. No personal information should be submitted, posted, or provided to the JGANC by individuals under 18 years of age without the express consent of a parent or legal guardian.

It is the strict policy of the JGANC to never share, sell, or provide any personal, financial, or identifying information collected to any third party.
